- 2. We may cancel by mailing at least 10 days notice to the named insured shown in the Declarations at the address shown in this policy.
- 3. After this policy is in effect for 60 days or if this is a renewal or continuation policy, we will cancel only:
  - a. if you submit a fraudulent claim; or

    - (1) any driver who lives with you; or

- B. Non-renewal. If we decide not to renew or continue this policy, we will mail notice to the named insured shown in the Declarations at the address shown in this policy. If the policy period is other than 1 year, we will have the right not to renew or continue it only at each anniversary of its original effective date. We will not refuse to renew because of a covered person's age. We may not refuse to renew this policy based solely on the fact that you are an elected official.
- C. Automatic Termination. If, at any time, you obtain other insurance on your covered auto, any similar insurance provided by this policy will terminate as to that auto on the effective date of the other insurance. Failure to pay the required renewal or continuation premium when due shall mean that you have not accepted our offer.
- D. Other Termination Provisions.
  - 1. We may deliver any notice instead of mailing it. Proof of mailing of any notice shall be sufficient proof of notice.
  - 2. If this policy is cancelled, you may be entitled to a premium refund. If so, we will send you the refund no later than the 15th day after the effective date of termination or cancellation.   - 3. The effective date of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period.
  - 4. Any cancellation or restriction of coverage made without your consent will be of no effect, except as
    - a. provided for in this Termination provision under:
      - (1) Cancellation;
      - (2) Non-renewal; or

- 2 an accident or claim involving damage by contact with an animal or a fowl;

- 4 a claim under towing and labor protection; however, if you have four claims of this type in any 36-month period, we have the option of eliminating this coverage from your policy;

"Refusal to renew" means our refusal to renew your personal auto policy in the same company which originally issued the policy.

To the extent of any possible conflict between this notice and the Texas Administrative Code (28TAC §5.7016), the latter will be controlling.

However, we reserve the right to cancel the policy as permitted by policy terms and the cancellation shall terminate this agreement as to the loss payee's interest. We will give the same advance notice of cancellation to the loss payee as we give to the named insured shown in the Declarations.

Mexico Coverage- Limited Endorsement

Warning -- Read This Endorsement Carefully!

Auto accidents in Mexico are subject to the laws of Mexico only—NOT the laws of the United States of America. Unlike the United States, the Republic of Mexico considers an auto accident a CRIMINAL OFFENSE as well as a civil matter.

In some cases, the coverage under this endorsement may NOT be recognized by Mexican authorities and the company may not be allowed to implement this coverage at all in Mexico. You should consider purchasing auto coverage from a licensed Mexican Insurance Company before driving into Mexico.

This endorsement does not apply to trips into Mexico that exceed 25 miles beyond the border of the United States of America.

The coverages for your covered auto provided by this policy are extended to accidents occurring in Mexico within 25 miles of the United States border. The extension only applies for infrequent trips into Mexico that do not exceed ten (10) days each trip.

“Infrequent trips” means less than five (5) trips in any calendar month.

Additional Exclusion

We do not provide any coverage:

1. If your covered auto is not principally garaged and used in the United States; and
2. To any insured who does not live in the United States.

Special Conditions

1. Other Insurance. The insurance we provide by the endorsement will be excess over any other collectible insurance.
2. Losses Payable Under Coverage for Damage to Your Auto. We will pay losses under Coverage for Damage to Your Auto in the United States, not in Mexico. If your covered auto must be repaired in Mexico in order to be driven, we will not pay more than the actual cash value of such loss at the nearest United States point where the repairs can be made.

RENTAL REIMBURSEMENT (RCM.RR.2016)

THE FOLLOWING ENDORSEMENT APPLIES ONLY IF FORM NUMBER RCM.RR.2016 APPEARS ON YOUR POLICY DECLARATIONS.

Coverage is provided under this endorsement only when noted on the Declarations Page of this policy. All the provisions of this policy apply to the coverage provided by this endorsement, except as modified herein.

We will reimburse you, or at our option, pay directly on your behalf, without application of a deductible, up to the daily limit and aggregate amount shown on the Declarations Page. We will pay for Rental Reimbursement Coverage, for rental expenses incurred by you when you rent an auto from a commercially licensed rental agency approved by us. Daily rental expenses shall not include cost of any insurance related to the rental of the auto, cost of refueling the rental auto, or mileage fees. This endorsement applies only if:

your covered auto is withdrawn from use for more than twenty-four (24) hours; and the loss is caused by an auto accident.

Our payment will be limited to the lesser of that period of time:

1. reasonably required to repair or replace your auto, or
2. forty-eight (48) hours of rental coverage extended, after an offer has been made, if your covered auto has been deemed a total loss, or
3. when we pay for the loss, or
4. thirty (30) days.

Loan Lease Payoff Coverage

Loan Lease Payoff Coverage

If you pay the premium for this coverage, and your covered auto for which this coverage was purchased is deemed by us to be a total loss, we will pay, in addition to any amounts otherwise payable under Part D, the difference between:

1. the actual cash value of your covered auto at the time of the total loss; and
2. any greater amount the owner of your covered auto is legally obligated to pay under a written loan or lease agreement to which your covered auto is subject at the time of the total loss, reduced by:
  - a. unpaid finance charges or refunds due to the owner for such charges;
  - b. excess mileage charges or charges for wear and tear;

Use of credit information disclosure

Insurer's Name: Cover Financial MGA of Redpoint County Mutual Insurance Company

Address: 137 Noe Street, San Francisco, CA 94144

Telephone Number (toll free if available): 833-394-6674

We ☒ will ☐ will not (choose one) obtain and use credit information on you or any other member(s) of your household as a part of the insurance credit scoring process.

If you have questions regarding this disclosure, contact the insurer at the above address or phone number. For information or other questions, contact the Texas Department of Insurance at 1-800-578-4677 or PO Box 149104, MC 104-PC, Austin, Texas 78714.

Section 559.053 of the Texas Insurance Code requires an insurer or its agents to disclose to its customers whether credit information will be obtained on the applicant or insured or on any other member(s) of the applicant's or insured's household and used as part of the insurance credit scoring process.

If credit information is obtained or used on the applicant or insured, or on any member of the applicant's or insured's household, the insurer shall disclose to the applicant the name of each person on whom credit information was obtained or used and how each person's credit information was used to underwrite or rate the policy. An insurer may provide this information with this disclosure or in a separate notice.

Adverse effect means an action taken by an insurer in connection with the underwriting of insurance for a consumer that results in the denial of coverage, the cancellation or nonrenewal of coverage, or the offer to and acceptance by a consumer of a policy form, premium rate, or deductible other than the policy form, premium rate, or deductible for which the consumer specifically applied.

Credit information is any credit related information derived from a credit report itself or provided in an application for personal insurance. The term does not include information that is not credit-related, regardless of whether the information is contained in a credit report or in an application for insurance coverage or is used to compute a credit score.

Credit score or insurance score is a number or rating derived from a mathematical formula, computer application, model, or other process that is based on credit information and used to predict the future insurance loss exposure of a consumer.

Summary of consumer protections in Chapter 559

Prohibited use of credit information. An insurer may not:

- (1) use a credit score that is computed using factors that constitute unfair discrimination;
- (2) deny, cancel, or nonrenewal of a policy of personal insurance solely on the basis of credit information without consideration of any other applicable underwriting factor independent of credit information; or

- (3) take an action that results in an adverse effect against a consumer because the consumer does not have a credit card account without consideration of any other applicable factor independent of credit information.

An insurer may not consider an absence of credit information or an inability to determine credit information for an applicant for insurance coverage or insured as a factor in underwriting or rating an insurance policy unless the insurer:

- (1) has statistical, actuarial, or reasonable underwriting information that: (A) is reasonably related to actual or anticipated loss experience; and (B) shows that the absence of credit information could result in actual or anticipated loss differences;
- (2) treats the consumer as if the applicant for insurance coverage or insured had neutral credit information, as defined by the insurer; or
- (3) excludes the use of credit information as a factor in underwriting and uses only other underwriting criteria.

Negative factors. An insurer may not use any of the following as a negative factor in any credit scoring methodology or in reviewing credit information to underwrite or rate a policy of personal insurance:

- (1) a credit inquiry that is not initiated by the consumer;
- (2) an inquiry relating to insurance coverage, if so identified on a consumer's credit report; or
- (3) a collection account with a medical industry code, if so identified on the consumer's credit report.

Multiple lender inquiries made within 30 days of a prior inquiry, if coded by the consumer reporting agency on the consumer's credit report as from the home mortgage or motor vehicle lending industry, shall be considered by an insurer as only one inquiry.

Effect of extraordinary events. An insurer shall, on written request from an applicant for insurance coverage or an insured, provide reasonable exceptions to the insurer's rates, rating classifications, or underwriting rules for a consumer whose credit information has been directly influenced by a catastrophic illness or injury, by the death of a spouse, child, or parent, by temporary loss of employment, by divorce, or by identity theft. In such a case, the insurer may consider only credit information not affected by the event or shall assign a neutral credit score.

An insurer may require reasonable written and independently verifiable documentation of the event and the effect of the event on the person's credit before granting an exception. An insurer is not required to consider repeated events or events the insurer reconsidered previously as an extraordinary event.

An insurer may also consider granting an exception to an applicant for insurance coverage or an insured for an extraordinary event not listed in this section. An insurer is not out of compliance with any law or rule relating to underwriting, rating, or rate filing as a result of granting an exception under this article.

Notice of action resulting in adverse effect. If an insurer takes an action resulting in an adverse effect with respect to an applicant for insurance coverage or insured based in whole or in part on information contained in a credit report, the insurer must provide to the applicant or insured within 30 days certain information regarding how an applicant or insured may verify and dispute information contained in a credit report.

Dispute resolution; error correction. If it is determined through the dispute resolution process established under Section 611(a)(5), Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1681i), as amended, that the credit information of a current insured was inaccurate or incomplete or could not be verified and the insurer receives notice of that determination from the consumer reporting agency or from the insured, the insurer shall re-underwrite and re-rate the insured not later than the 30th day after the date of receipt of the notice.

After re-underwriting or re-rating the insured, the insurer shall make any adjustments necessary within 30 days, consistent with the insurer's underwriting and rating guidelines. If an insurer determines that the insured has overpaid premium, the insurer shall credit the amount of overpayment. The insurer shall compute the overpayment back to the shorter of the last 12 months of coverage; or the actual policy period.

CONSUMER BILL OF RIGHTS

Personal Automobile Insurance

AVISO: Este documento es un resumen de sus derechos como asegurado. Usted tiene el derecho a llamar a su compañía y pedir una copia de estos derechos en español.

What is the Bill of Rights?

This Bill of Rights is a summary of your rights and does not become a part of your policy. The Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) adopted the Bill of Rights and requires insurance companies to provide you a copy when they issue your policy.

Texas law gives you certain rights regarding your personal automobile insurance. This Bill of Rights identifies your rights specified by rule or by state statute, but it does not include all of your rights. Also, some exceptions to the rights are not listed here. Legislative or regulatory changes to statutes or rules may affect your rights as an insured. If your agent, company, or adjuster tells you that one of these rights does not apply to you, contact TDI's Consumer Protection Program at 1-800-252-3439 (512-463-6515 in Austin), by mail at Mail Code 111-1A, P. O. Box 149091, Austin, TX 78714-9091, or by email at ConsumerProtection@tdi.state.tx.us. For a list of the specific law(s) and/or rule(s) summarized in each item of this Bill of Rights, or if you have questions or comments, contact the Office of Public Insurance Counsel (OPIC) at 1-877-611-6742, by mail at 333 Guadalupe, Suite 3-120, Austin, TX 78701, or visit the OPIC website at www.opic.state.tx.us.

This Bill of Rights does not address your responsibilities. Your responsibilities concerning your insurance can be found in your policy. Failure to meet your obligations may affect your rights.

Getting information from the Department of Insurance and your insurance company

1. INFORMATION FROM TDI. You have the right to call TDI free of charge at 1-800-252-3439 or 512-463-6515 in Austin to learn more about:

- your rights as an insurance consumer;
- the license status of an insurance company or agent;
- the financial condition of an insurance company;
- the complaint ratio and type of consumer complaints filed against an insurance company;
- use of credit information by insurance companies, including which insurance companies use it and access to each company's credit scoring model;
- an insurance company's rates filed with the state;
- an insurance company's underwriting guidelines (subject to exemptions in the Public Information Act, also known as the Open Records Act); and

- other consumer concerns.

You can also find some of this information on the TDI website at www.tdi.texas.gov.

At www.helpinsure.com, Texans can find more detailed information on their current and prospective insurers. TDI, in conjunction with OPIC, maintains this website to help Texans shop for residential property insurance and personal automobile insurance. For companies writing in Texas that are in the top 25 company groups nationally, the site also includes:

- a list of insurers by county and/or ZIP code;
- detailed contact information for each insurer;
- sample rates and a brief history of increases and/or decreases in the rates;
- policy form comparisons;
- a list of policy forms, exclusions, endorsements, and discounts offered by each insurer; and
- non-confidential disciplinary actions against each insurer.

2. INFORMATION FROM YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY. You have the right to a toll-free number to call your insurance company free of charge with questions or complaints. You can find this number on a notice accompanying your policy. This requirement does not apply to small insurance companies.

What you should know before you buy insurance

3. PROHIBITED STATEMENTS. Your insurance company or agent is prohibited from making false, misleading, or deceptive statements to you relating to insurance.

4. EXCESS LIMITS. An insurer or agent cannot require you to purchase liability limits greater than the minimum limits required by law or require you to purchase other types of coverage as a condition of offering or renewing insurance. The current minimum limits are 30/60/25, which references the maximum amount the policy will pay for each accident: $30,000 per person for a bodily injury claim /$60,000 for all bodily injury claims combined /$25,000 for property damage claims per accident.

NOTE: Texas law requires that automobile insurance policies include personal injury protection (PIP) and uninsured motorist protection (UM/UIM) unless you reject these coverages in writing. Also, as a condition of your automobile loan, your lender may require you to purchase other types of coverages, such as collision or comprehensive coverage, to pay for any damage to your vehicle.

5. CREDIT INFORMATION. An insurance company cannot deny you insurance solely on the basis of credit information. Insurers who use credit information must also consider other underwriting factors independent of credit information when deciding whether to offer coverage. (For additional information see section of this Bill of Rights titled What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information.)

6. SAFETY NET. You have the right to buy minimum liability, personal injury protection, and uninsured motorist insurance through the Texas Automobile Insurance Plan Association, also known as TAIPA, if you have been denied coverage by two insurance companies.

7. PAYMENT PLANS. You may have the right to pay your automobile insurance premium in installments. Insurance companies will charge a fee for each installment.

8. ELECTRONIC PAYMENTS. If you authorize your insurer to withdraw your premium payments directly from your financial institution, your insurer cannot increase the amount withdrawn unless:

- the insurer notifies you by U.S. mail of the increase in premium at least 30 days prior to its effective date; and
- you do not notify the insurer that you object to the increase in the amount to be withdrawn at least five days prior to the increase.

The notice provided by the insurer must include a toll-free number, a mailing address and an email address (if applicable), through which you can contact the insurer to object to the increase.

NOTE: This does not apply to premium increases specifically scheduled in the original policy, to increases based on policy changes you request, or to an increase that is less than $10 or 10 percent of the previous month's payment.

9. NOTICE OF REDUCED COVERAGE. If an insurer uses an endorsement to reduce the amount of coverage provided by your policy, the insurer must give you a written explanation of the change made by the endorsement. The insurer must provide the explanation not later than the 30th day before the effective date of the new or renewal policy. An insurance company cannot reduce coverage during the policy period unless you request the change. If you request the change, the company is not required to provide notice.

10. EXPLANATION OF DENIAL. Upon request, you have the right to be told in writing why you have been denied coverage. The written statement must fully explain the decision, including the precise incidents, circumstances, or risk factors that disqualified you. It must also state the sources of information used.

NOTE: The obligation to provide a written explanation applies to insurance companies directly. An independent agent does not have a specific duty to quote the lowest possible rate to a consumer or to provide a written statement explaining why the agent did not offer the consumer the lowest possible rate.

11. RATE DIFFERENTIAL WITHIN A COUNTY. If an insurance company subdivides a county for the purpose of charging different rates for each subdivision, the difference between the lowest and the highest rate cannot exceed 15 percent unless actuarially justified.

12. RIGHT TO PRIVACY. You have the right to prevent an insurance company, agent, adjuster, or financial institution from disclosing your personal financial information to companies that are not affiliated with the insurance company or financial institution. Some examples are income, social security number, credit history, and premium payment history.

If you apply for a policy, the insurance company or financial institution must notify you if it intends to share financial information about you and give you at least 30 days to refuse. This refusal is called “opting out.” If you buy a policy, the insurance company or financial institution must tell you what information it collects about you and whether it intends to share any of the information, and give you at least 30 days to opt out. Agents and adjusters who intend to share your information with anyone other than the insurance company or financial institution must give you similar notices.

You can opt out at any time. Your decision to opt out remains in effect unless you revoke it.

These protections do not apply to information:

- publicly available elsewhere;
- insurance companies or financial institutions are required by law to disclose; or
- insurance companies or financial institutions must share in order to conduct ordinary business activities.

What you should know about cancellation and nonrenewal

Cancellation means that before the end of the policy period the insurance company:

- terminates the policy;
- reduces or restricts coverage under the policy; or
- refuses to provide additional coverage to which you are entitled under the policy.

Refusal to renew and nonrenewal mean the policy terminates at the end of the policy period.

The policy period is shown on the declarations page at the front of your policy.

13. LIMITATION ON CANCELLATION. After your initial policy with your company has been in effect for 60 days, that insurance company cannot cancel your policy unless:

- you don’t pay your premium when due;
- you file a fraudulent claim;
- your driver’s license or car registration is revoked or suspended;
- the driver’s license of any household resident or person who customarily drives a covered auto is suspended or revoked. If you agree to exclude coverage for that person, the insurance company cannot cancel your policy for this reason; or
- TDI determines continuation of the policy would result in violation of insurance laws.

14. NOTICE OF CANCELLATION. To cancel your policy, your insurance company must mail notice at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation. Your policy may provide for even greater notice.

15. POLICYHOLDER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL. You have the right to cancel your policy at any time and receive a refund of the remaining premium. The refund will be paid to you unless your premium was financed through a premium finance company. In that case, the refund will be paid to the premium finance company to reduce the amount you owe on your loan.

16. CHANGE IN MARITAL STATUS. If your marital status changes, you have the right to continue your insurance coverage. You have a right to a new policy in your name that has coverages which most nearly approximate the coverages of your prior policy, including the same expiration date. The insurance company cannot date the new policy so that a gap in coverage occurs.

17. NOT-AT-FAULT CLAIMS. Your insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy solely because of any of the following types of claims:

- claims involving damage from a weather-related incident that does not involve a collision, like damage from hail, wind, or flood;
- accidents or claims involving damage by contact with animals or fowls;
- accidents or claims involving damage caused by flying gravel or flying objects; however, if you have three of these claims in a three-year period, the insurance company may raise your deductible on your next renewal date;
- towing and labor claims; however, once you have made four of these claims in a three-year period, the company may eliminate this coverage from your policy on your next renewal date; and
- any other accident or claim that was not your fault unless you have two or more of these claims or accidents in a one-year period.

18. USE OF AGE TO NONRENEW. Your insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy based solely on the age of any person covered by the policy. This includes placing you in a higher priced company or requiring a named driver exclusion for a teenager who reaches driving age.

19. USE OF CREDIT INFORMATION TO NONRENEW. An insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy solely on the basis of credit information. Insurers who use credit information must also consider other underwriting factors independent of credit information when deciding whether to renew coverage. (For additional information see the section of this Bill of Rights titled What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information.)

20. LENGTH OF POLICY TERM. If the term of your insurance policy is less than one year, your insurance company must renew that policy until it has been in effect for one year. Your insurance company may only refuse to renew your policy effective on the anniversary of the policy's original effective date. For instance, if your policy was originally effective on January 1, Year 1, the insurance company must renew your policy to provide coverage until January 1, Year 2, and thereafter, may only refuse to renew your policy effective January 1 of any subsequent year.

21. NOTICE OF NONRENEWAL. If the insurance company does not mail you notice of nonrenewal at least 30 days before your policy expires, you have the right to require the insurance company to renew your policy.

22. EXPLANATION OF CANCELLATION OR NONRENEWAL. Upon request, you have the right to a written explanation of an insurance company's decision to cancel or nonrenew your policy. The written statement must fully explain the decision, including the precise incidents, circumstances, or risk factors that disqualified you. It must also state the sources of information used.

What you should know when you file a claim

23. FAIR TREATMENT. You have the right to be treated fairly and honestly when you make a claim. If you believe an insurance company has treated you unfairly, call the Department of Insurance at 1-800-252-3439 (512-463-6515 in Austin) or download a complaint form from the TDI website at www.tdi.texas.gov. You can complete a complaint form on-line via the Internet or fax it to TDI at 512-475-1771.

24. SETTLEMENT OFFER. You have the right to reject any settlement amount, including any unfair valuation, offered by the insurance company. If you reject a settlement offer, your options include continuing to negotiate with the insurer or pursuing legal remedies, such as mediation, arbitration, or filing a lawsuit.

25. EXPLANATION OF CLAIM DENIAL. Your insurance company must tell you in writing why your claim or part of your claim was denied.

26. TIME FRAMES FOR CLAIM PROCESSING AND PAYMENT. When you file a claim on your own policy, you have the right to have your claim processed and paid promptly. If the insurance company fails to meet required claims processing and payment deadlines, you have the right to collect 18 percent annual interest and attorney's fees in addition to your claim amount.

Generally, within 15 calendar days, your insurance company must acknowledge receipt of your claim and request any additional information reasonably related to your claim. Within 15 business days after receipt of all requested information, the company must approve or deny your claim in writing. The law allows the insurance company to extend this deadline up to 45 days if it notifies you that more time is needed and tells you why.

After notifying you that your claim is approved, your insurance company must pay the claim within five business days.

If your claim results from a weather-related catastrophe or other major natural disaster as defined by TDI, these claims handling deadlines are extended for an additional 15 days.

27. CHOICE OF REPAIR SHOP AND REPLACEMENT PARTS. You have the right to choose the repair shop and replacement parts for your vehicle. An insurance company may not specify the brand, type, kind, age, vendor, supplier, or condition of parts or products used to repair your automobile. The insurance company must provide you notice of the above requirements as follows:

- claims submitted by telephone – written notice within three business days or immediate verbal notice, followed by written notice within 15 days;
- claims submitted in person – immediate written notice at the time you present your vehicle to an insurer or an insurance adjuster or other person in connection with a claim for damage repair; or
- claims submitted in writing – written notice must be provided within three business days of the insurance company's receipt of the notice.

28. DEDUCTIBLE RECOVERY. If another person is liable for damage to your auto and you filed a claim and paid a deductible on your own policy, your insurance company must make a reasonable and diligent effort to recover the deductible from that person within twelve months from the date your claim is paid. If not, your company must:

- authorize you, at least 90 days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations, to pursue your own collection efforts, or
- refund your deductible.

29. NOTICE OF LIABILITY CLAIM SETTLEMENT. Your insurance company must notify you if it intends to pay a liability claim against your policy. The company must notify you in writing of an initial offer to compromise or settle a claim against you no later than the 10th day after the date the offer is made. The company must notify you in writing of any settlement of a claim against you no later than the 30th day after the date of the settlement.

30. INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED FOR CLAIM PROCESSING. You have the right to refuse to provide your insurance company with information that does not relate to your claim. In addition, you may refuse to provide your federal income tax records unless your insurer gets a court order or your claim involves lost income or a fire loss.

What you should know about prohibited discrimination

31. PROTECTED CLASSES. An insurance company cannot discriminate against you by refusing to insure you; limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to you; charging you a different rate for the same coverage; or refusing to renew your policy:

- because of race, color, religion, or national origin; or
- unless justified by actual or anticipated loss experience, because of age, gender, marital status, geographic location, or disability or partial disability.

32. UNDERWRITING GUIDELINES. Underwriting guidelines may not be unfairly discriminatory and must be based on sound actuarial principles.

33. EQUAL TREATMENT. Unless based on sound actuarial principles, an insurance company may not treat you differently from other individuals of the same class and essentially the same hazard. If you sustain economic damages as a result of such unfair discrimination, you have the right to sue that insurance company in Travis County District Court.

If your suit prevails, you may recover economic damages, court costs and attorney and necessary expert witness fees. If the court finds the insurance company knowingly violated your rights, it may award up to an additional $25,000 per claimant.

You must bring the suit on or before the second anniversary of the date you were denied insurance or the unfair act occurred or the date you reasonably should have discovered the occurrence of the unfair act. If the court determines your suit was groundless and you brought the lawsuit in bad faith, or brought it for the purposes of harassment, you will be required to pay the insurance company's court costs and attorney fees.

What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information

34. REQUIRED DISCLOSURE. If an insurance company uses credit information to make underwriting or rating decisions, the company must provide you a disclosure statement within 10 days after receiving your completed application for insurance.

The disclosure indicates whether the insurer will obtain and use your credit information and lists your specific legal rights, including:

- credit information insurance companies cannot use against you;
- how you can get reasonable exceptions that your insurer is required to make to its use of credit information if certain life events, such as divorce, death of a close family member, or identity theft, hurt your credit;
- the notice* an insurer must send you when making a credit-based decision that harms your ability to get or keep insurance or requires you to pay a higher premium; and
- how you can dispute credit information and require an insurer to re-rate your policy if the rate was increased because of inaccurate or unverifiable credit information.

* The notice must include a description of up to four primary factors that influenced the action taken by the insurer.

Insurers must use the disclosure form (CD-1) adopted by the commissioner or an equivalent disclosure form filed prior to use with TDI. The CD-1 is available at www.tdi.texas.gov/forms/pcpersonal/pc328crdtds.pdf or by calling 1-800-252-3439.

Additional information regarding insurers' use of credit information is available at www.tdi.texas.gov/credit/credit.html.

36. RIGHT TO SUE. If an insurance company violates your rights, you may be able to sue that company in court, including small claims court, with or without an attorney.

37. BURDEN OF PROOF. If you sue to recover under your insurance policy, the insurance company has the burden of proof as to any application of an exclusion in the policy and any exception to or other avoidance of coverage claimed by the insurer.

38. REQUESTING NEW RULES. You have the right to ask in writing that TDI make or change rules on any automobile insurance issue that concerns you. Send your written request to: Texas Department of Insurance, Attn: Commissioner (113-2A), P.O. Box 149104, Austin, TX 78714-9104.
